Job 3 – Job 7

Monday - Job 3 – Job's despair and depression. Job thought it would have been better not to have lived at all than to experience what he was experiencing.

Tuesday - Job 4 – Job's friend Eliphaz speaks. His counsel: The innocent: they do not suffer. Job's suffering must be due to Job's sin. It is cause and effect religion.

Wednesday - Job 5 – Eliphaz suggests that God's chastening is not without cause. God blesses the righteous. Job needs to confess his sin and find God's mercy.

Thursday - Job 6 – Job replies to Eliphaz. Job questions Eliphaz's lack of compassion. Job rejects Eliphaz's counseling technique.

Friday - Job 7 – Job questions God's fairness.
